

Training of Trainers in New Technologies

Budget Measure 2022/2023

The Human Resource Development Council (HRDC) is implementing the 2022/2023 Budget measure of refund of 50% of the cost incurred to train Trainers (who are presently providing training in the field of ICT) in new technologies. The Scheme aims to address the immediate skills needs of the ICT industry.

Scheme Duration

This scheme is valid for a period of one year, from 01 November 2022 to 31 October 2023.

The duration of the training must not exceed 6 months.

Eligibility Criteria

- The scheme only caters for Train the Trainer programme in new fields of ICT.
- The Scheme is open to trainers who are presently providing training in the field of ICT, namely:
 - A trainer who is an employee of a Registered Training Institution (RTI);
 - A freelance trainer;
 - An internal trainer employed by an enterprise;
 - Lecturers who are employed in Tertiary Education Institutions.
- The applicant is eligible for the refund of training cost only once for a training programme already attended under this scheme.

Refund criteria

- 50% refund of the tuition fee will be effected upon successful completion of the training by the applicant.
- For training dispensed locally (either by a Registered Training institution (face to face or live online mode) or In-House training delivered by an internal trainer or a local freelance trainer or a foreign trainer or training attended via online platform or via live online mode from foreign institutions/universities), 50% of the tuition fee will be refunded subject to a maximum of Rs 30,000 per participant whichever is the lower.
- For training attended overseas, 50% of tuition fee will be refunded subject to a maximum of Rs 50,000 per participant whichever is the lower.

Note: Tuition fee means the fee paid for the training excluding cost of training materials, and other costs incurred in the conduct of the training.
